VALLEY CENTRE, Va., April 10, 1893.
Having been solicited to become a candidate for the office of Clerk of the County and Circuit Courts of Highland county, I desire to say to my friends that the active campaign necessary to succeed might result in the loss of my health, which is more to me than any office.
Thanking my friends for their kindness, I am
Very truly yours,
S. B. REXRODE.

DOE HILL.
Doe Hill, Va., April 10.—I will try to write a few lines for your paper, which is read with delight by your many friends.
We have had some nice warm weather, but very dry so that grass has not made much start yet.
Farmers are all about done their spring plowing; most of them have sowed their oats.
There is a great deal of sickness in our neighborhood and has been for some time back.
George Snyder is very low at this writing, and also one of Joe Blagg's little sons.
I understand that Mrs. Lee Hiner is quite sick.
Our worthy Dr. is kept very busy day and night.
Dr. M. P. Jones was in our midst one day and night last week.
On last Thursday morning, April 7, our quiet community was shocked to hear of the death of Mrs. Hannah Botkin, wife of Lee Botkin. She was a faithful wife, a devoted mother, and a kind and good neighbor, and died in the arms of her Savior. Her suffering was so great that she could not talk to anyone.
The funeral was to have been Thursday evening, but on account of our pastor having sprained his ankle, he could not be with us. Our worthy Sunday School Superintendent, Dr. Jones, read a chapter and offered up most fervent prayer then; made a few remarks on the life and death of our sister. There was not a dry eye in the congregation.
DOE HILL.
Doe Hill, Va., April 11.—Miss Eva Bucher, of Parnassus, is visiting friends here.
Howard Armstrong is visiting his mother.
O. A. Bird spent Saturday and Sunday at his home.
Frank Wilson, of Monterey, is visiting friends and relatives at this place.
Mr. Pope, of Pendleton county, spent a few days last week with his son, L. M. Pope, of this place.
Our young peoples prayer meeting has been reduced in members by so many of the young people going West; nevertheless they have an interesting meeting every week.
A fire broke out on Doe Hill last Saturday and burned fence for several persons and came so near town that there was danger of a conflagration.
Died—At her home near this place on the 7th of April, 1893, after only four days' illness, Mrs. Hannah Botkin.
Why should our tears in sorrow flow,
When God recalls His own;
And bids them leave a world of woe
For an immortal home?
Is not 'e'en death a gain to those,
Whose life to God was given?
Gladly to earth their eyes they close
To open them in heaven.
ROMULUS.

DUNMORE.
Dunmore, April 11.—Fine weather for growing. Farmers are fixing to put out a big crop this spring. Farming is the only thing to save this county; we are too far from the railroad to make a living without farming. Wheat looks well.
Our circuit court lasted all last week; quite a lot of business was transacted. 15 indictments were made. Rev. C. E. Halden and Wm Wymer get three years each in the penitentiary for horse-stealing. The officers will start to Moundsville with the convicts on the 13th. Auctioneer Swecker sold a good many horses, a large quantity of goods and several tracts of land at Court. There is some sign of another war—3 boys, all 11 pounds, near town. Miss Gertrude Yeager will spend some time in town. Miss Perkins will open a first-class millinery store this week in town. It is understood that there will be a hotel opened here soon. Pau Brown was over last week. Vote on the road law in May. The lumber drive has hung up; Noah's ark only ran about 1 1/2 miles. Wine & Lambert will move their saw mill to Dilley's mill. Tom Sawyer.
